

LIFE'S LESSONS FOR BEAR THOMAS BOUGHER

Bringing a small gift to the table is better than sitting down empty handed

Elevate people to your level instead of letting them lowering you to theirs

Anger held too tightly will cause happiness to slip through your fingers

Retreating temporarily may be wise, surrendering permanently is foolish

Taking one step at a time shouldn't stop you from planning ahead

Having the wrong approach will cause others to quickly depart

Open doors to a bright future by closing doors on a dark past

Meeting people halfway can be easier than travelling the road alone

As long as you have faith in good people they will have faith in you

Sisters will treat you as their little brother no matter how big you get

Boys must always hug their mothers, even if they think it's uncool

Opportunities are always around the corner, just be careful when you turn

Until you followed their path, never criticize someone else's journey

Giving people second chances doesn't mean they deserve any more

Hiding behind your failures will stop you from showing your successes

Even the most successful people will stumble but they always get back up

Recognize the lessons life teaches you and nothing will stand in your way
